VASJ moves in new direction for basketball program

CLEVELAND, Ohio – Villa Angela-St. Joseph High School announced today that men’s varsity basketball head coach Babe Kwasniak’s contract will not be renewed effective immediately.

“The Viking Village would like to thank Coach Kwasniak for his dedication, his love for the school, and the successes he has brought to the basketball program and young men he has shaped and formed throughout his tenure,” said VASJ Athletic Director Elvis Grbac ’88.

VASJ will begin its search for a new men’s varsity basketball head coach by the end of the week.

Villa Angela-St. Joseph High School is a Catholic, comprehensive college-preparatory school rooted in the Ursuline and Marianist traditions and committed to the spiritual, academic, and personal growth of each student.
